Bajrang Baan

Bajrang Baan is a powerful devotional prayer dedicated to Lord Hanuman, one of the most revered deities in Hinduism. The word “Bajrang” refers to Hanuman’s strong and indestructible body, while “Baan” means arrow. The prayer is believed to invoke Lord Hanuman’s swift blessings and protection.

Traditionally attributed to Goswami Tulsidas, Bajrang Baan is recited by devotees seeking courage, protection, strength, and relief from difficulties. Unlike Hanuman Chalisa, which focuses on praising Lord Hanuman’s qualities, Bajrang Baan is often recited as a heartfelt prayer during challenging times.

Many devotees recite Bajrang Baan to overcome fear, negativity, obstacles, and mental stress. It is especially popular on Tuesdays and Saturdays, which are considered sacred days for Hanuman worship.

The prayer emphasizes unwavering faith, devotion, and surrender to Lord Hanuman. Devotees believe that sincere recitation can help strengthen confidence, improve focus, and bring inner peace. Bajrang Baan is often recited alongside Hanuman Chalisa, Sankat Mochan Hanuman Ashtak, and Hanuman Kavach.
